Haun joined the firm in 2012, after relocating to Nashville from the Atlanta area where he worked for both a small and large commercial design firm. He contributes over 7 years of professional architecture experience working on a wide range of projects including small municipal projects, educational projects, as well as large office buildings. His studies took him from Marietta, GA, where he attended undergraduate school, to Dessau, Germany where he studied Modernism at the Bauhaus during the summer of 2004.
